

[Name of Agreement – to be provided by Parihaka]

A RELATIONSHIP AGREEMENT BETWEEN CROWN PARTIES, LOCAL AUTHORITIES AND PARIHAKA

Introduction

Parihaka has a special place in Aotearoa New Zealand's history as the place where Tohu Kakahi and Te Whiti o Rongomai led a movement of non-violent resistance to the forced settlement of Taranaki lands. They created a community based on principles of equality; collectivism; self-sufficiency; empowerment; non-violent conflict resolution; sustainability; and innovation. These principles continue to guide the Parihaka community today.

In its Treaty settlements with the iwi of Taranaki the Crown has acknowledged the serious damage that it inflicted by its past actions at Parihaka and that its actions breached the Treaty of Waitangi.

In 2015 a working group, Kawe Tutaki, was established to advise the Crown on how it could support the Parihaka community. Kawe Tutaki recommended, among other things, the Crown and Parihaka commence a process of reconciliation and that the Crown provide assistance to help the Parihaka community to achieve their goal of developing and revitalising Parihaka over the next 25 years.

In May 2016 the Attorney-General, on behalf of the Crown, and Parihaka signed a Compact of Trust in which they committed to develop a new constructive relationship (attached as Appendix 1).

[Name of agreement]

[Name of agreement] builds on the Compact of Trust signed by the Crown and Parihaka. It establishes a relationship between the Crown parties, local authorities and Parihaka whereby Crown parties and local authorities undertake to assist Parihaka with their development aspirations and projects.

The parties to this agreement are:

Representing Parihaka:

- i. The Parihaka Papakāinga Trust

Representing the Crown:

- i. Te Puni Kōkiri
- ii. The Department of Internal Affairs
- iii. The Ministry for Culture and Heritage
- iv. The Ministry for Business, Innovation and Employment
- v. The Ministry of Social Development
- vi. The Ministry for the Environment
- vii. The Ministry of Education
- viii. Taranaki District Health Board
- ix. Heritage New Zealand Pouhere Taonga
- x. Te Papa Tongarewa

Representing local authorities:

- i. South Taranaki District Council
- ii. New Plymouth District Council
- iii. Taranaki Regional Council

The parties to this agreement commit to establish and maintain a co-operative and enduring relationship. They will:

- i. respect the autonomy of each other and their individual mandates, roles and responsibilities;
- ii. actively work together using shared knowledge and expertise to assist Parihaka with its development aspirations;
- iii. co-operate in partnership with a spirit of good faith, integrity, honesty, transparency and accountability;
- iv. engage early on issues of known interest to Parihaka; and
- v. acknowledge that the overall relationship is evolving.

A summary of the development projects Parihaka plan to undertake (taken from Parihaka Whakamua, Parihaka Pūmou: Future-proofing Parihaka) and how Crown parties and local authorities can assist is attached as Appendix 2 and 3. Subject to the agreement of the relevant parties, new projects may be added and projects identified may change as necessary. Crown agencies and other organisations may be added to [Name of agreement], or otherwise participate in projects, with the agreement of their chief executives.

Assistance under this agreement will mainly involve, but is not limited to, the sharing of knowledge and information (where appropriate), expertise and assistance with sourcing resources to progress the development projects Parihaka plan to undertake. The parties acknowledge that each can only work within their available resources, work programme priorities, and capacity at any given time.

Parties to this agreement can invoke its terms at any time by contacting the other party/ies. Contact details are attached as Appendix 4.

Any dispute that arises in relation to this agreement is to be referred to Te Puni Kōkiri who will act as mediator in the first instance. If the dispute is not resolved or if it is otherwise inappropriate for Te Puni Kōkiri to consider the dispute, it will be referred to independent mediation and arbitration.

The parties to [name of agreement] agree to come together at the request of the Parihaka Papakāinga Trust to review progress with development projects, and/or any issues relating to the operation of this agreement, at two yearly intervals. The parties expect that there will be more frequent meetings between the Parihaka Papakāinga Trust and individual agencies, or local authorities, as they determine are necessary.

Responsible Agency

The responsible agency for this agreement is Te Puni Kōkiri. Te Puni Kōkiri is responsible for overseeing changes to this agreement (including the addition of new agencies), assisting Parihaka engage with the parties if necessary, mediating any disputes (or if necessary arranging for independent mediation and arbitration) and organising the review meeting. Te Puni Kōkiri will also lead a review of the effectiveness of the agreement after five years.

Memorandum of Understanding

While not a party to this agreement, it is noted, that the Department of Corrections and Parihaka are intending to develop a memorandum of understanding which would cover matters of common interest.

Signatories: [to be completed]

He Papa Ohaoha ki te whare o Rongo i a Parihaka me te Karauna

He kapu taunaki tēnei i a Parihaka rāua tahi ko te Karauna hei papa ohaoha ki te whare o Rongo, Rongo-maraeroa, he ki tararangi atu kia haere tahi te kōrero me te mahi whai uhakaaro, whaitua hoki.

Ka poupoua a Parihaka kāinga i roto i ngā hua o te riri, pākia ana ki te muru me te rauapatu, ki te herehere kua, ki te kuru o manene ki Taranaki, otiā ki wāhi atu anō ki Aotearoa. Ka ara te tikanga i a Tohu Kakahi, i a Te Whiti-ō-Rongomai kia mou ai te rongo ki runga ki te whenua, ki runga ki te tangata. Ka hōhia te ngākau, te tinana, me te wairua tapu o te tangata ki ngā kaha o te pono, te tika me te rangimārie e tīna ai te oranga tonutanga.

Ka tā te Karauna, i ōna hanga, hei taituana i ngā kaupapa here, i ngā rauataki kia whāhā, kia rawea, kia tauitika ai ngā hua o te ora ki te iti, ki te nahi. Ka tararangi hoki te nare e pāmou ai ngā mōtika ki te tararangi tangata, tararangi taiao ki Aotearoa whānui.

I roto i ngā tau, ka ngana a Parihaka kia whakairihia tōna rongo ki te mana motuhake o te hanga ririki, ki te whakatautua hoki i te mouri tangata whenua. Engari rā mō te tohe Kāwana, ka pūhauatia a Parihaka kia tohio ki tahaki ana tikanga. Waihoki kihai i whenuami i a te Karauna, ā, pāmou tonu ana a Parihaka ki te rā nei.

Nāwhaiti, kua kitea he pananga huarahi kia pūea ake taua tikanga o Rongo ki te rā e whiti ana, kia horapa te arohanui ki te tangata, kia āhira a Parihaka me te Karauna ki te tōpuni kua o Rongo tau-tangata-matua. Pai marire.

Kei tēnei reanga te mouri me te pūtake o taua tikanga i ahua mai e Tohu Kakahi, e Te Whiti-ō-Rongomai e ohaia ana e te tini, e te Karauna hoki ka tika. Tērā ngā tatau rino o Pōneke i tātakina i mua, e pūea ake nei, hei tātanga mō te ahu whakamua, he ahu ngātahi atu, ngātahi mai.

I roto i te mana kāwana i takes mai i te marea o Aotearoa, ka oha atu te Karauna ki Parihaka, me te āwhina i ngā ngana kia ora te tikanga o Parihaka, e tinana ai te moungi-orongo, te mouri tangata whenua, te mana hapori, otiā te mana atua.

E tohu ana te papa ohaoha nei ki tētahi timatanga hou, hei kōkiri i ngā hua whaitaka, i ngā hua whaitake mō Parihaka ki ngā whakataupananga o muri ake – ētia he puna wai koropūpū o te ora e kore nei e mimiti, hei muriwai mō Rongo ū tonu atu ki wānga i a Parihaka me te Karauna.

Ka tāmua ēnei kapu taunaki ki te whare o Te Niho o Te Ati Aua, i runga i te karanga o Parihaka, me te tauitoko o ngā hapū mana whenua i tēnei rā te 22 o Haratua, i te tau 2016.

This is a solemn statement of commitment, a compact of trust between Parihaka and the Crown, a mutual acknowledgement and pledge to work together with a shared vision.

The Parihaka community emerged amid the devastation of war, confiscation, imprisonment without trial and systemic colonial repression throughout Taranaki, indeed in other parts of the country. Tohu Kakahi and Te Whiti-ō-Rongomai created a principled practice of peace that sought to foster mutual recognition, respect and prosperity for all. The ideals of belief, honour and goodwill were woven through the emotional, physical and spiritual fabric of the community, for an enduring wellbeing.

The Crown is, among other things, responsible for establishing policy and strategy to enable resource allocation, productivity and equality of access to services for the whole population. It promotes legislation to protect rights and the social and physical environment of all Aotearoa.

Through the years, Parihaka has sought to generate and foster principled peace, to provide sanctuary and to forge a model of sustainable community. The unconscionable actions of the Crown, including the traumatising plunder of Parihaka, attempted to sweep aside these principles. However, the Crown's plans ultimately failed and Parihaka has persisted to this day.

Now, a pathway has been sought to realise that legacy of peace and to honour our humanity embracing Parihaka and the Crown in partnership and cooperation.

In this generation, the significance and relevance of the legacy of Tohu Kakahi and Te Whiti-ō-Rongomai is today being appropriately acknowledged, particularly by the Crown. The doors of Government historically closed to Parihaka, are now opening, for mutual and reciprocal advancement.

The Crown, through the democratic authority given to it by the people of Aotearoa, solemnly recognises the status of Parihaka, and resolves to work with Parihaka towards the fulfilment of Parihaka's legacy, based on the principles of peace, sustainability, community development and spiritual integrity.

This compact marks the beginning of a new relationship intended to lead to effective and meaningful enablement of Parihaka for future generations - a spring of replenishment flowing uninterrupted, toward a genuine and binding peace between Parihaka and the Crown.

This statement of commitment is made in the whare of Te Niho o Te Ati Aua, at the invitation of Parihaka, with strong endorsement of hapū, on this day the 22nd of May, 2016.
